

Historical Archaeology Field School – Applications invited

KCHR is organising a field school in Historical Archaeology for training volunteers at the Pattanam excavation site, North Parur, Ernakulam Dt, during February, March, April and May 2010 as part of this season's excavation.

Applications are invited from students of Class X and above, interested in archaeology. The fees for each student for one month training would be Rs 1000 inclusive of accommodation and food. Those wishing to join may send in their applications along with bio data, intended duration of stay and a short write up on his/her interest in archaeology, routed through their school/college authorities to the Co-ordinator, Historical Archaeology Field School, KCHR, P B 839, Vyloppilly Samskrithi Bhavan, Nalanda, Thiruvananthapuram-3 before the 15th of January 2010 by post or in the email id kchrtvm@gmail.com. For more details, kindly contact 0471 6574977 / 9995678791.